

Festival Activities Include:

Festival Parades

Everyone is welcome to join in the frolic! Parades are great opportunities to show off your fairie finery!

Tribal Gatherings & Parades to Royal Ceremonies

The Procession of the Royal Court: Gathers directly after the Royal Ceremonies (~1:45pm)

Wee Fae Parade: Led by the Pocket Fairies at 4pm

Fairie and Gnome Habitats

The tiny fairies who usually build and watch over the homes within the Fairie Habitats at Spoutwood Farm have created houses throughout Ramblewood. Some are out in the open and some are tucked safely away in dark mysterious spots. See how many you can find!

Queens' Castle

Come get lost in a fairy tale labyrinth. Unlock riddles and solve clues to find not one, but TWO queens! Hosted by Queen Lavender Joy and Queen Lilyanna.

Mermaids of Shores to Flames

How do mermaids prepare for Fall? Come find out!

Passport Journey

Fairies from all over the globe, adventuring throughout Ramblewood.

Look for the Beneficent Order of the Greenman March making its way through the Festival on Saturday, bestowing blessings of peace and bounty to all!

Important Info:

Photo Fae

Smile! Spoutwood has a team of Photo Fae you may spot around the Festival! They can be identified by their "Official Photographer" buttons, and the photos they take may be used for promotions.

Parent Gents

Private area with glider for lactation or resting and a changing station. Please help keep these areas clean. PLEASE TAKE DISPOSABLE DIAPERS WITH YOU.

Wee Fae Family Play Area

A safe play area for small children with straw bales and bubbles. The Play Area is NOT A DROP OFF. Children must be attended by an adult at all times.

Yellow Pages/Information Booth

Information and Lost & Found (including lost people!). Look for the Yellow Pages with tall yellow flags around the Festival if you have a question.

ATM

There are two cash machines on site. One is located near the gate entrance. The other is located near Vendor Villages.

No Weapons

No toy, replica, or real weapons allowed. Performances may use pre-approved prop weapons.

Smoking Policy

Smoking allowed in smoking and e-cig courts only.

Be sure to visit the Spoutwood Farm Booth!

Fall Fairie Festival

with you!

Spoutwood Farm presents the inaugural Fall Fairie Festival, featuring music, storytellers, dancers, pumpkin painting, scarecrow-making, a vendor village, and delicious fairie food, including vegetarian, vegan, and gluten-free options!

And for the fae that embrace the dark, consider attending the Autumnal Lights Celebration on Saturday from 7-11 pm. Costumes are encouraged! Requires separate $15 ticket available at the gate until 6 pm.

Zero Waste Policy

Please use the Zero Waste Stations located throughout the Festival to reduce waste and recapture resources as much as possible.

COMPOST (Greenman): food & food materials (cups, plates, cutlery, napkins, straws, etc. are made from compostable plant matter!)

RECYCLING (Dragon): Plastics, glass, metals, cardboard, paper (like this program)

TRASH (Raven): Styrofoam, juice boxes/pouches, diapers, weird stuff

Kubiando!

Thank You to Camp Ramblewood and Maryland Faerie Festival staff and volunteers for their support, as well as all staff, volunteers, committee members, performers, vendors, and exhibitors!

Performers

Aura Shards: Offers a magical and unique auditory experience using a hang drum and tabla

Bright Hawk: A storyteller who uses her Hang PANart to help tell stories with songs

Everybody Drum/Drum Fae: Provides drums, percussion, and facilitation for drum circles

Frenchy & The Punk: Joyfully blends foot-stompin' folk, cabaret, world music, French chanson, and '80's punk, with vaudeville charm, pixie spirit, and steampunk flair

Gild the Mourn: Combines elements of gothic rock, dark wave, post-punk and classic fairytales

MAHARAL: A wild and sweet steampunkery performance group who melds techno with dabs of traditional Eastern music

Maugorn the Stray: Wandering minstrel and medieval one-man band

Naked Jungle: Features members of psychedelic tribal/world rock band Telesma

The Sasanach: Traditional Irish fiddle music

Tower Green: A group whose songs span ancient Rome, dark elves and maidens, the works of Tolkien, and more

The Wild Hymns: Original modern folk music with Americana, jazz, world, and ambient/experimental rock and roll influences
